

Source: Sheffield Telegraph {Main}
Edition:
Country: UK
Date: Thursday 23, July 2009
Page: 14
Area: 25 sq. cm
Circulation: ABC 17934 Weekly
BRAD info: page rate £2,705.04, scc rate £8.84
Phone: 0114 276 7676
Keyword: Sheffield University

Bus travel feedback

SHEFFIELD people with learning disabilities are helping to inform national policy on public transport.

Research co-ordinated by Sheffield University helped participants to articulate their feelings about how bus services meet their needs. The results were discussed at the People's Parliament.

Overall, bus travel was found to be a positive experience but there were concerns over anti-social behaviour, lack of suitable crossings and jargon used in information.

